

OFFICE OF UTILITIES REGULATION

Regulating Utilities for the Benefit of All

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

The Office of Utilities Regulation (OUR) invites applications from suitably qualified individuals to fill the following position:

SENIOR REGULATORY ENGINEER – TELECOMMUNICATIONS

CORE FUNCTIONS:

The successful candidate will be required to plan, manage and execute a range of analytical tasks relevant to regulatory decisions and initiatives including to:

- ◆ Assess the impact of technological developments on the telecommunications sector as well as the implications for existing regulations;
- ◆ Monitor, investigate, analyse and provide recommendations on the performance of telecommunications networks and the end-to-end service quality provided by licensees;
- ◆ Develop quality of service/experience and other technical standards for the efficient performance of the telecommunications sector;
- ◆ Perform the detailed technical and engineering work for the effective economic regulation of the telecommunications sector, for example, assess Reference Access/Interconnection Offers and assist in the development of cost models;
- ◆ Assess licence applications; and
- ◆ Undertake extensive technical report writing.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS, EXPERIENCE, &

CRITICAL COMPETENCIES:

- ◆ A Post-Graduate Degree in Communications Engineering or related field. Candidates with only an undergraduate degree will be considered, if they have at least ten (10) years experience in the telecommunications sector;
- ◆ Minimum of six (6) years work experience, which incorporates all or some of the core functions detailed above;
- ◆ Sound understanding of the current telecommunications technologies/ protocols currently deployed in Jamaica;
- ◆ Be cognizant of new advancements in telecommunications technologies;
- ◆ In-depth knowledge of end-to-end call flow for Packet-switched and Circuit-switched networks;
- ◆ Have the ability to conduct drive tests;
- ◆ Have strong technical skills, including the ability to read and understand technical drawings;
- ◆ Be highly computer literate with proficiency in the use of an array of contemporary modeling and analytical software;
- ◆ Have outstanding verbal communication, strategic thinking, analytical, and technical report writing skills;
- ◆ Have the ability to interact professionally; and
- ◆ Can maintain high ethical standards.

Applications should be submitted no later than Friday, 2018 March 23, to:

Senior Regulatory Engineer - Telecommunications

Director Administration and Human Resource

The Office of Utilities Regulation

3rd Floor, PCJ Resource Centre

36 Trafalgar Road, Kingston 10, Jamaica.

Email: employment@our.org.jm www.our.org.jm

Issued by the Office of Utilities Regulation on 2018 February 28